7. Principal's Report
  - Mr. Cybulski resigned. We are not jumping to hiring someone new right away.
  - Kindergarten classes are overcrowded. We are waiting for an official response on this from CPS.
  - 8th Grade students have taken high school tests. This is an extremely high stakes test. It determines their admission for high school.
  - Last week staff attended a PD on co-teaching.
  - November's social-emotional theme is gratitude and kindness.
  - Attendance has dipped to 93.69%.

- Next week Dr. Riff will virtually hold the state of the school. A link will be sent out in the backpack. It will also be recorded and posted.
  - Our family engagement committee is planning a magic show for next week.
8. New Business
- Principal Evaluation
    - Plan to finalize at Dec. 5th LSC meeting
9. Announcements
- None
10. Agenda Items for Next Meeting
- Principal Report
  - CIWP
11. Public Participation
- Public Participant: Who sets 28 student cap? The CTU contract.
  - Public Participant: Do we have a classroom space for a third kindergarten class? Yes.
  - Kindergarten teacher has been in contact with CPS and CTU and was told there are many schools in similar positions. Their focus is on schools with no resources and low income. There are some schools with higher numbers than us.
  - A kindergarten parent is concerned about overcrowding and has tried to be a “squeaky wheel”. What can we do with the CPS provided TA position?
  - Kindergarten parent is concerned that her kindergartener is going to fall through the cracks as the teacher’s attention is spread thin.
  - More parents should call/ email about overcrowding in kindergarten.
  - LSC will work on advocating for overcrowding.
12. Motion to adjourn
- Motion: Nancy Bogg
  - Second: Jenny Canavan
  - Unanimous Decision to Adjourn at 6:53 p.m.
